Kathmandu, September 1

European Economic Chamber (EEC-Nepal) president Dibya Mani Raj Bhandari and London Chambers of Commerce and Industry (LCCI) deputy chief executive Peter Bishop on August 26 signed an agreement of cooperation in London.

The agreement will promote and strengthen the development of trade relations and cooperation between member companies of both the chambers so as to pave the way for the promotion of Nepal and United Kingdom trade, investment and technology transfers.

Meanwhile, Danish Federation of Small and Medium Sized Enterprises and Federation of SMEs (FSMEs) Nepal participated in a meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark under EU-funded ECI-BON Project aimed at enhancing the capacity of Nepalese Intermediary Business Organizations (IBOs).
