

The Rising Nepal

www.egokhapatra.com

September 14, 2009 | Bhadra 29, 2066 B.S. | Nepal Sambar 1129 | Yanlegza Dasharni | Monday | Pages 8 | Rs. 4.00

EEC-Nepal team returns home

By A Staff Reporter

Kathmandu, Sept. 13

A seven-member business delegation led by Ditya Mani Rajbhandari, President of European Economic Chamber (EEC)-Nepal returned home Sunday with after completing its trip to Copenhagen of Denmark.

The delegation aimed to promote economic cooperation and attract direct foreign investments to Nepal.

Prior to joining the delegation in Copenhagen, Rajbhandari had extensive discussions with representatives from London Chamber of Commerce on matters of economic and trade issues in London and signed an agreement to promote bilateral trade and investment between the two countries, according to a press release issued by EEC-Nepal.

to promote and strengthen economic and trade relation and co-operation between the member companies of both organizations on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, the press statement said.

In the presence of Bijaya Kanta Kartha, Ambassador of Nepal to Denmark, Rajbhandari, and Secretary General of EEC-Nepal Binayak Shah signed an agreement of cooperation with Jens Kowring, Director of International Department, the Danish Federation of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (DFSME). The agreement aims

Other members of the delegation included Prayakar B. Rana, ECIBON project manager and Sagar Nepal, finance manager of ECIBON project, president of Federation of Small and Medium Enterprises-Nepal (FSMEN) Jung Bahadur Shrestha, B.K. Maharjan, secretary general and Bekha Man Dongol, treasurer of the same organization.